

FABIAN MORENO – Executive President of Ecuadorian Fund for Sustainable Development (FED) Foundation

Education:

- Sociologist - Central University of Ecuador (1978)
- Monitor Technical Planning and Governance - Northern Technical Univ (2000)

Professional Experience:

1988 - 1992: Advisor of CONADE – Ecuadorian National Development Council.
1992 - 1994: President - Technical Director Bureau of Ecuadorian Indian Affairs
1995 - 1997: Advisor of Municipality of Cuenca
1997 - 1998: Advisor of Provincial Council of Azuay
1999: Advisor of Provincial Council of Morona Santiago
1999 - 2000: Ministry of Foreign Affairs - Director of the Technical Unit for Amazonian Development
2000 - 2003: Advisor of Municipality of Limon Indanza
2003: ECORAE – Evaluator for Master Plan of the Amazon Region
2004: USAID / CAYMAN Foundation - Consultant
2004 until now: President of the FED Foundation

Ecuadorian Fund for Sustainable Development (FED) Foundation

Foundation FED has the technical capability for integrating resources to enable self-development of local authorities and communities. It has based the management in the valuation of environmental services and sustainable forest management, as well as the integral formation of local human resources, in a process of techniques transfer and capacity building, enabling social empowerment processes under a REDD+ proposal.

Foundation FED and its technical allies are oriented to develop sustainable projects and the improvement of the life standards in the Amazonian territories, focusing in the local authorities and communitarian organizations strengthening, supporting their activities in a continuous training as well as the development of environmentally sound projects and creating new ways of cooperation with local leaders and authorities.

Foundation FED, initials of “Ecuadorian Fund for Sustainable Development (Fundación Fondo Ecuatoriano De Desarrollo Sustentable)” is a non for profit organization of private civil law, under the Ecuadorian laws, created by a free and voluntary association, for people without legal impediment to associate and to act based in their bylaws and corporative regulations, which were approved by the Ministry of the Environment of Ecuador, with Ministerial Agreement 045 of April 24th, 2002.

Foundation FED, is also the exclusive promoter of the REDD+ project in the province of Sucumbíos is deeply involved in the development of a REDD project with the province of Sucumbíos, in which it have been very important developments until now.

FED Foundation has been developing in a joint effort with Fondo Ambiental Nacional and other partners, specific aspects in strategic planning, governance, appraisals of environmental services and biodiversity resources, institutional strengthening, conservation and sustainable handling of the forest resources based on the monetary compensation, among other initiatives for strengthening the provincial initiative and delivering a very strong and socially inclusive REDD+ project for Commonwealth of Northern Ecuador.

Fondo Ambiental Nacional (National Environmental Fund - FAN) is a private non-profit civil society, legally established on January 16, 1996, by Executive Decree No. 3409, published in the Official Gazette number 865 of January 18, 1996.

FAN's main objective is to develop plans, programs and projects aimed to protection activities, conservation and improvement of natural resources and environment in accordance with established environmental priorities of sustainable development.

FAN promotes financial sustainability through financial instruments design, fund raising strategies development, financial resource administration; and, fundraising and grantmaking activities.